Hi Marisol!

Following up on our discussion today. As we discussed, McDonald's is pleased to be able to provide healthy snacks for the students for this great event the Councilman is organizing. We were thinking smoothies, apple slices and go-gurts (yogurt in fun container).

I went back to them and they are not able to provide any warm food. Unfortunately, warm food does not travel well for these types of events. They care very much about serving delicious meals and I'm afraid cold wraps/burgers do not meet their high standards (yes the wraps actually are served warm, as is the chicken in the salads).

However, they are pleased to support by providing the cold items above (and I'd be happy to take back any other requests for cold food to them). Please let me know what time you would like the delivery.

Hi Veronica -

Thanks so much for all your efforts in trying to help us secure a donation from McDonald's for the Councilman's fitness challenge event. Jeanne and I talked a bit and we think the students will need protein and carbs after the five workout stations they will be participating in. The snacks sound great, but in an effort to be able to wrap up the event in 3 hours we think providing a full lunch is best.

We will be hosting about three holiday community events in December (dates TBD), we'd love to save the snack donation for those events. Milk and cookies would be ideal for our toy giveaway and our winter wonderland snow events.

Thanks so much for checking in with McDonald's corporate we sincerely appreciate the effort and look forward to hopefully collaborating in a couple months!

Have a great weekend!
